

Mark W. Hendricksen - Principal

MARK W. HENDRICKSEN's experience and areas of practice include all aspects of intellectual property, including obtaining patents, trademarks & copyrights, client counseling, transactions, designing around patents, legal opinions, intellectual property strategies, litigation, trademark oppositions and cancellations, and appeals.

The Nature of Mark's Practice:

- Mark emphasizes providing intellectual property advice and services while always keeping the client's overall business position and strategies in mind. Mark's preparation, prosecution, transaction, counseling and litigation work has been in numerous industries and areas of technology, including health care, telecommunications, metal processing, sports supplements, engine design, sporting devices, optical devices and chips, computer software games, industrial machines, metal casting, medical equipment, food processing and farm equipment, in the United States and abroad.

Professional Licenses:

- U.S. Patent & Trademark Office
- State of Washington Bar Association, State of Idaho Bar Association
- U.S. District Courts, Eastern and Western Districts of Washington, Districts of Idaho & Montana
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth and Federal Circuits

Prior Professional Experience:

- Prior to joining Wells St. John, Mark was a partner in an AV rated litigation and commercial law firm, handling litigation and transactions of all kinds, including complex commercial, patent, trademark, securities and product liability for 12+ years.

Education:

- B.S. Mechanical Engineering – Washington State University
- B.A. Business Administration – Washington State University
- Juris Doctoris in Law – Gonzaga University