

David G. Latwesen - Principal

DAVID G. LATWESEN has a depth of experience in chemistry, biochemistry and related sciences. This experience is valuable in enabling Dave to communicate with, and appropriately advise clients regarding intellectual property protection for medical, chemical, biological, and related subject matter.

The Nature of Dave's Practice:

- Dave assists his clients in developing and maintaining strategies for patent portfolio management. Dave also assists clients in assessing issues of patent infringement. Dave's practice extends into a variety of industries, including semiconductor processing, metallurgy, medicine, fertilizers, chemistry, paper-making, food processing and biotechnology.

Professional Affiliations:

- U.S. Patent Bar
- State Bar of Washington

Education:

- B.S. Biochemistry/Biophysics, with Honors, Oregon State University, one paper published pertaining to toxicology;
- Ph.D. Biochemistry – University of Wisconsin-Madison, several papers published pertaining to spectroscopy and enzymology;
- J.D., Magna Cum Laude, Gonzaga University